AIN'T

He was just a little boy, On a week's first day,
Wandering home from Bible School, and dawdling on the way.

He scuffed his shoes into the grass, He even found a caterpillar.
He found a fluffy milkweed pod, And blew out all the "filler".

A bird's nest in a tree overhead, So wisely placed on high,
Was just another wonder, That caught his eagle eye.

A neighbor watched his zig zag course, And hailed him from the lawn;
Asked him where he's been that day, And what was going on.

"I 've been to Bible School', he said, And turned a piece of sod,
He picked up a wiggling worm replying, "I've learned a lot about God."

"Hmmm, very fine way", the neighbor said "for a boy to spend his time.
If you tell me where God is, I will give you a brand new dime."

Quick as a flash the answer came! Nor were his accents faint.
"I'll give you a dollar Mister, if you can tell me where God ain't"

Jesus Calling: Enjoying Peace in His Presence

During this time of year with busy fall schedules and school re-starting, our work and ministry through facilities management are more crucial than ever. The fall is an exciting time for most churches, so this season of the year gives us a wonderful opportunity to touch many lives by assisting the ministries and programs that are held in the places where we serve. You may be facing long days, multiple activities, hectic schedules, etc., but remember that the other members of the NACFM can encourage you and assist you during difficult and Trust Me in the depths of your being. It is there that I live in constant communion with you. When you feel flustered and frazzled on the outside, do not get upset with yourself. You are only human, and the swirl of events going on all around you will sometimes feel overwhelming. Rather than scolding yourself for your humanness, remind yourself that I am both with you and within you.

Also, the change of seasons from summer to fall is a reminder that God has set everything in place. A new season is a reminder of the “newness” and freshness that each of us can experience in our professional lives. I hope that you are finding time to draw closer to the Lord personally, and that the start of this fall season reminds you that God is always able to start new and better things for each of us, if we will trust Him and serve Him.

I am with you at all times, encouraging and supportive rather than condemning. I know that deep within you, where I live, My Peace is your continual experience. Slow down your pace of living for a time. Quiet your mind in My Presence. Then you will be able to hear Me bestowing the resurrection blessing: Peace be with you.

The Story OF Three Bullets

There once was a man who had nothing for his family to eat. He had an old rifle and three bullets. So, he decided that he would go out hunting and kill some wild game for dinner. As he went down the road, he saw a rabbit. He shot at the rabbit and missed it.

The rabbit ran away. Then he saw a squirrel and fired a shot at the squirrel and missed it.

The squirrel disappeared into a hole in a cottonwood tree. As he went further, he saw a large wild 'Tom' turkey in the tree, but he had only one bullet remaining.

A voice spoke to him and said, 'Pray first, aim high and stay focused.'

However, at the same time, he saw a deer which was a better kill. He brought the gun down and aimed at the deer. But, then he saw a rattlesnake between his legs about to bite him, so he naturally brought the gun down further to shoot the rattlesnake.. Still, the voice said again to him, 'I said 'Pray, Aim high and Stay focused..'

So, the man decided to listen to God's voice.

He prayed, then aimed the gun high up in the tree and shot the wild turkey. The bullet bounced off the turkey and killed the deer. The handle fell off the gun and hit the snake in the head and killed it. And, when the gun had gone off, it knocked him into a pond. When he stood up to look around, he had fish in all his pockets, a dead deer and a turkey to eat for his family.

The snake (Satan) was dead simply because the man listened to God.

Moral of the story:

Pray first before you do anything, aim and shoot high in your goals, and stay focused on God. Never let others discourage you concerning your past. The past is exactly that, 'the past.' Live every day one day at a time and remember that only God knows our future and that he will not put you through any more than you can bear.

Do not look to man for your blessings, but look to the doors that only He has prepared in advance for you in your favor.

Wait, be still and patient: keep God first and everything else will follow.

Pass this on in order that someone else might be blessed.

FROM ONE FRIEND TO ANOTHER

Don't worry about tomorrow, God is already there!!!
