NACFM National Conference 2008

Fall CP Update

The NACFM Fall CP is coming soon. It will be held at First Baptist Church, in Orlando, Florida. More information will be coming soon.

The NACFM National Conference in San Antonio was our best attended to date and from what we are hearing, it was the best programming.

We wish to say a very special "Thank You" to Rusty Surratt and Jim Dye for making our visit to their city and church a most pleasurable and productive time.

Here are some comments from those that attended this year's conference.

"This was a great conference and I recommend it to all members. The programs and opportunities for connection are invaluable. This was huge for me this year in encouraging me to keep doing what God has asked me to do and not give up in the face of discouragement! Thank you all for all you do!! You are all appreciated!!"

"The conference is one of a kind. It's the only real source I have for further education in my ministry as a Facility Manager. I'm thankful for this growing group of men and women that "Love Jesus"."

"The conference was a great experience. It has given me the opportunity to meet new people to network and build relationships with. I truly recommend that you take advantage of those opportunities to attend annual conferences. The sessions that were presented during this conference were very valuable and undoubtedly will make a tremendous impact in the way that my church's facilities are managed."

Be sure that you do not miss out on next year's National Conference as we are sure that it be another exciting and productive event.

President's Message

A VERY EXCITING WEEK

WOW!!

What an exciting week. I'm speaking of the NACFM National Conference. It was by far the very best. My hat goes off to all of the speakers. I feel we were able to bring back to the churches practical applications from what was covered each day. I am still digging out from being gone and it will be a while before I am able to go over my notes from the conference but once I'm able to do that my goal is to implement many of the suggestions and ideas that were given to us that week.

I was exceptionally excited about the expo. It was certainly a success.

continue to enhance our relationships and our membership. Way to go gang!

The second thing that stood out for me and one that I needed to hear was Max Lucado's message at the Thursday night banquet. Talking about rallying the troops! It was powerful! I think we all get so wrapped up in the day to day activities and serving others that we forget about ourselves and that God has chosen us to care for His house. What a blessing and privilege it is to serve God in this way. Many people talk about the perfect job and although we work hard and for many hours I think we have that perfect job.

“...although we work hard and for many hours I think we have that perfect job.”

I received great feedback from not only you the members, but also the vendors who were excited about spending some one on one quality time with you. It certainly gives us the opportunity to grow next year.

The two things that stand out the most for me, was the fellowship and the message. I made many new friends and saw many new relationships building. The thing that struck me was watching the relationships that were built during the certification programs continue to grow. That is one of many vital tools that

Thank you God for allowing the men and women that you have chosen to be your servants and have entrusted to oversee your house. Thank you for the relationships that we continue to build through this organization. Thank you God for providing spouses that understand the work that we do for you and thank you God for your Son.....Amen.

With honor serving Him,

Glenn

Word of the Month

Dear NACFM Members,

Your Board of Directors met for our January meeting in Memphis, TN. At that meeting, I asked the Board to come up with one word that they would use to describe the NACFM. One Word. For the next several months we will be sharing our word with you in the monthly newsletter. This month we will hear from our Treasurer, Bruce Fite. Bruce's word is:

SERVICE

When I looked up the word "service" I found 13 different definitions. What it really means to me is performing an act of assistance, performing a kindly or charitable act for another, or being a benefit to another. It means having a "What can I do for you" or "What can I do to make your life easier" attitude. Jesus gave a great example of service by washing the feet of His disciples. At that moment, he was there to be a servant, not to be served. As Facility Managers, our job is all about service to God, the church, and its membership. As NACFM members, we should seek out other facility managers that we can be of service to. Our reward may not be on this earth, but rest assured, it will be in Heaven!
